

Welcome Back!

Welcome to a brand new school year! I hope all of you are enjoying your summer. This will be a year of achievements and challenges. We are looking forward to working with you. Moreover, your child should expect physical, social, and emotional changes during this school year. We require that your child demonstrate responsibility for all assignments and duties. Organization, accountability, respect, and achievement in all areas are top priority. We expect full parental involvement because, according to current research, parental involvement has a direct effect on student performance. Thus, your presence will be welcomed and appreciated at meetings, school events, field trips, and any other school functions. It is going to be a great and challenging year.

My goal is to help students to become active in their education so they enjoy learning new ideas and concepts that they can take with them throughout their educational career. Therefore, my mission is to touch the hearts of each of your children, while instilling lifelong learning. I will give my students the skills and knowledge necessary for their successful futures, as well as instilling an eagerness and enthusiasm to know more and to question why. I want them all to believe that there isn't anything they can't do. I plan on making your child feel confident academically, as well as raising his or her self-esteem personally. I will achieve this while being sensitive and aware of each of their capabilities and needs. My classroom will include mutual respect and kindness for all.

I am eager to meet you because I know you are the most important person in your child's life. I believe working together as a team will help enhance your child's education. I look forward to a year full of fun and learning with you and your child. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. You will find that I am very approachable, and I always do my best to make time for parents because I feel communication is so very important. My email address is salaspj76@hotmail.com, in case you prefer to email me. I look forward to chatting more!

See you soon!
